Wizards and Witches Tea

For our littlest witches and wizards (under 7) we have party games (Pin the hat on the witch, Ghost, ghost, ghoul (duck, duck, goose) etc. . For those over 7 we have a fun scavenger hunt with puzzles and logic games.

Manor House Murder

Women and Men * 6-10 players

Sir Reggie is dead, killed in his own house in London during World War II. The suspects are plenty and the accusations fly, but can you decide who is telling the truth and who is lying by dessert? It is a tale that will keep you guessing to the very end. All served with tea!

Death Comes to Bath

Women * 6-10 players

Jane Austen's lovable characters come to life in this tale of intrigue and gossip. Anne Elliot has gathered her friends (among whom are Elizabeth Bennett, Emma Woodhouse, and Elinor Dashwood). The local parson is dead and there are rumors a woman was involved. Ever the one to put things right, Anne gathers her friends to see if they can piece together what happened and who can be responsible for the ghastly event.

Personalized Mystery

Don't like these options? We can do a murder mystery just for you. You tell us the number of guests, gender, time period, and location you would like us to set the mystery in and we will write one for you. Please give at least 2 weeks notice for this option.

For groups over 10—You decide 6-8 people to act as the suspects and the rest of your guest all become Sherlock Holmes trying to solve the mystery. Pricing on this option will depend on number of guests and menu options. Please call Auntie Rae, 801-679-3925, for a quote. Please also give at least 2 weeks notice for this option.
